

THREE THINGS THURSDAY

THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 2024

3—EASTER GREETINGS FROM PRESIDING BISHOP EATON

In her Easter message to the church, Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton focuses on three words that describe what the women at the tomb experienced when the angel announced that Jesus had been raised from the dead: fear, amazement and being seized or possessed.

"These three words really say something about the women, and I think about us and, most especially, about Easter ... I think it's very important to take time to be a little amazed, to be standing in a different place, to have a sense of this awe and trembling before the Lord, and to allow ourselves to be possessed by the Spirit, who will give us power and courage in these times."
