

THREE THINGS THURSDAY

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 2025

1—QUILT SUNDAY

Sunday, October 6, 2024—9:30am—Sanctuary

Join us this Sunday as our sanctuary is beautifully adorned with Lutheran World Relief (LWR) mission quilts draped over the pews. Pastor Joanne will bless the quilts, kits, and those who will receive them. After the service, we'll pack them up for global distribution. Come and enjoy this cozy and heartwarming event!

Did you know ? It costs just $2.80 to ship one mission quilt overseas. You can support this cause by donating online HERE. Your generosity not only provides essential items but also brings dignity and hope to people around the world. Thank you!

2—OCTOBER'S DONATION DRIVE!

"Soup warms the body and the soul." This month, you can do both by donating CANNED SOUP to support The Hunger Task Force. Bring your donations to the grocery cart in the narthex and help stir up hope for our neighbors in need!

Drop your cans in the grocery cart in the narthex—every can makes a difference and every bowl shared spreads God's love!

3—LOOKING AHEAD—GOOD OLD FASHIONED CHURCH POTLUCK

Sunday, October 12, 10:15am—Fellowship Hall

Mark your calendars for next Sunday! After our worship service, we invite you to join us for a delightful Good Old Fashioned Church Potluck. This is a wonderful opportunity to come together as a community, share delicious homemade dishes, and enjoy each other's company.

Bring your favorite potluck item—whether it's a cherished family recipe, a classic comfort food, or a new culinary creation. From savory casseroles to sweet desserts, every dish adds to the joy of our gathering.

We look forward to seeing you there and tasting the wonderful variety of dishes our community has to offer.
